POLICY FOR CONSENT TO ADVERTISE IN CUCKFIELD

The white railings on South Street are the property of Cuckfield Parish Council, meaning permission for the erection of banners or advertising materials on these must be obtained from the Parish Council in advance of on installation.

1. All requests to erect a banner or poster on the railings must be in writing and on an official form.
2. All applicants must submit at the time of making the application, the completed form of indemnity.
3. No request for permission to erect banners will be considered more than one year in advance of the event. Applications will be considered strictly in the order they are received.
4. Except in special circumstances approved by the Parish Clerk or her nominated representative in writing, no banner can be erected for more than 2 weeks in total and no banner is permitted to stay up for more than one day after the event has taken place.
5. Only banners advertising events taking place within the civil parish of Cuckfield will be permitted.
6. No more than two banners will be permitted for installation on the white railings at any time.
7. Any organisation that fails to adhere to any of the rules governing the erection of banners will be refused future applications. Any unauthorised banners, posters, leaflets and other advertising/promotional material will be removed by the Parish Council and the Council reserves the right to dispose of such items without further notification.
8. The only permitted exception to these conditions will be for any Parish Council events.
9. Under no circumstances will any applications be entertained from commercial organisations or for the promotion of events that are being held outside the civil parish of Cuckfield. The Council will only permit banners from 'not for profit' organisations.
10. Because of demand, no charity or not-for-profit organisation will be permitted to display banners for more than two events in any one calendar year unless at the discretion of the Parish Clerk.

FORM OF INDEMNITY

Cuckfield Parish Council has noted my request for permission to erect a banner or poster. The conditions and requirements are hereby accepted by me/us.

I/We..... hereby undertake to indemnify Cuckfield Parish Council, its officers, servants and agents against all costs, claims and expenses, damage to property and injury to persons howsoever caused arising directly or indirectly out of the works.
