- (cc) to do all such other lawful things as shall further the above objects or any of them.

5. BENEFITS TO MEMBERS AND TRUSTEES

- 5.1 The income and property of the Charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its objects as set forth in these Articles and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit, to voting members and non-voting members of the Charity and no Trustee shall be appointed to any office of the Charity paid by salary or fees or receive any remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth from the Charity PROVIDED THAT nothing herein shall prevent any payment in good faith by the Charity:
- (a) of reasonable and proper remuneration to any voting member, non-voting member, officer, employee or consultant of the Charity not being a Trustee for any services rendered to the Charity.
 - (b) of interest on money lent by any voting member, non-voting member or Trustee of the Charity at not more than 2% above the minimum lending rate of a clearing bank selected by the Trustees.
 - (c) of reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any voting member or non-voting member of the Charity or its Trustees.
 - (d) of fees, remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth to a company of which a Trustee may also be a member holding not more than 1/100th part of the capital of that company.
 - (e) of out-of-pocket expenses to any Trustee and

- (f) of any premium paid for insurance to cover the liability of the Trustees as provided for in article 4(s) of these Articles.

6. MEMBERS

6.1 The Charity benefits from the support of many people who use its services, or who are employed by the Charity or work as volunteers, as well as others who in many different ways support its activities and its continuation. In this context, the Trustees shall have discretion in deciding who, for the purposes of these Articles, shall be voting members of the Charity. With effect from the Annual General Meeting held on 8 November 2017, the voting members of the Charity for the purposes of these Articles shall be:

6.1.1 those persons who were voting members of the Charity as at the start of the Annual General Meeting held on 8 November 2017; and

6.1.2 such other persons as the Trustees may at their discretion at any time thereafter admit as voting members, each such person being either:

- (1) a sight-impaired user of the Charity's services; or
- (2) a volunteer who has assisted the Charity for at least one year; or
- (3) a person whose membership is, in the Trustees' opinion, otherwise likely to be beneficial to the Charity.

6.2 Every person admitted to membership of the Charity shall sign a written consent to become a voting member and are admitted on the register of members.

6.3 An application to become a voting member may be approved or rejected by the Trustees. The Trustees shall have the right for good and sufficient reason to terminate the membership of any such voting member PROVIDED THAT the voting member concerned shall have a right to be heard before a final decision is made.

6.4 Unless the Trustees or the Charity in General Meetings shall make other provision pursuant to the powers contained in Article 20, the Trustees may in their absolute discretion permit any voting member of the Charity to retire provided that after such retirement, the number of voting members is not less than three.

Membership shall not be transferable.

7. LIMITED LIABILITY

7.1 The liability of the voting members is limited.

8. GUARANTEE

8.1 Every voting member of the Charity undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Charity, in the event of the same being wound up whilst being a voting member, or within one year after ceasing to be a voting member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Charity contracted before ceasing to be a voting member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, such amount as may be required not exceeding one pound.

9. GENERAL MEETINGS

9.1 The Charity shall each year hold a General Meeting as its Annual General Meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it; and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting of the Charity and that of the next. The Annual General Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Trustees shall appoint.

9.2 The Trustees may, whenever they think fit, convene a General Meeting, and General Meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or, in default, may be convened by such requisitioners, as provided by the Act.

10. NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

10.1 All General Meetings shall be called by at least fourteen clear days' notice in writing. The notice shall specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business, and the voting member's right to appoint a proxy.

- 10.2 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings of that meeting.

11. PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 11.1 The business to be transacted at an Annual General Meeting shall include the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the Trustees and auditors, the election of Trustees in the place of those retiring and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the auditors.

- 11.2 No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of voting members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; three voting members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, or, if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall be adjourned to such other day and at such other time and place as the Trustees may determine.

- 11.3. The Chairman, if any, shall chair every General Meeting of the Charity, or if there is no such Chairman, or if he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the Trustees present shall elect one of their number to chair the meeting.

- 11.4. If at any meeting no Trustee is willing to act as Chairman or if no Trustee is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the voting members present shall choose one of their number to chair the meeting.

- 11.5. The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no other business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

11.6. At any General Meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands. A declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the minutes of proceedings of the Charity shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

11.7. Every voting member, or their proxy, shall have one vote.

11.8. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

11.9 A written resolution is passed as an ordinary resolution if it is passed by a simple majority of the total voting rights of eligible voting members. A written resolution is passed as a special resolution if it is passed by voting members representing not less than 75% of the total voting rights of eligible voting members. A written resolution is not a special resolution unless it states that it was proposed as a special resolution. For these purposes, the written resolution may be set out in more than one document and will be treated as passed on the date of the last signature.

12. ORGANISATIONS ACTING BY REPRESENTATIVES AT MEETINGS

12.1 Any organisation which is a voting member of the Charity may by resolution of its governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Charity, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the organisation which he represents as that organisation could exercise if it were an individual voting member of the Charity.

13. THE TRUSTEES

13.1 The minimum number of Trustees shall be three.

13.2 Trustees shall be elected or appointed in accordance with Article 17.

13.3 The Trustees may be paid all reasonable expenses properly incurred by them in attending and returning from Trustee meetings or General Meetings of the Charity or in connection with the business of the Charity.

14. BORROWING POWERS

14.1 The Trustees may exercise all the powers of the Charity to borrow money, and to mortgage or charge its undertaking and property, or any part thereof, and to issue debentures, debenture stock and other securities, whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Charity or of any charitable body where such action will directly further the objects of the Charity.

15. HONORARY OFFICERS

15.1 The Honorary Officers shall consist of the Chairman, Vice-Chairman and the Treasurer as appointed in accordance with these articles.

16. POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE TRUSTEES

16.1 The business of the Charity shall be managed by the Trustees who may pay all expenses incurred in the formation of the Charity and may exercise all such powers of the Charity as are not required to be exercised by the Charity in General Meeting. Any such requirement may be imposed either by the Act or by these Articles or by any regulation made by the Charity in General Meeting; but no such regulation shall invalidate any prior act of the Trustees which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.

16.2 All cheques and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for moneys paid to the Charity, shall be signed or otherwise executed, as the case may be, in such manner as the Trustees shall from time to time determine provided that all cheques shall be signed by not less than two authorised signatories.

16.3 The Trustees shall arrange for minutes to be made:

(a) of all appointments of officers made by the Trustees;

(b) of the names of the Trustees present at each Trustee meeting; and

(c) of all resolutions and proceedings at all meetings of the Charity, and of the Trustees.

16.4 A Trustee shall disclose and shall not vote in respect of any contract in which he is interested or any matter arising therefrom, and if he does so vote his vote shall not be counted.

16.5 Subject to Article 13.1 the Charity may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase or reduce the number of Trustees.

16.6 The Trustees shall have power at any time to appoint any person to be a Trustee, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing Trustees, provided always no more than three persons shall be co-opted to act as Trustees at any one time and so that the total number of Trustees shall not at any time exceed any maximum number fixed in accordance with these Articles. Any Trustee so appointed shall hold office only until the next following Annual General Meeting and shall then be eligible for re-election.

16.7 No person may be appointed as a Trustee:

(a) unless he has attained the age of 18 years;

(b) in circumstances that, had he already been a Trustee, he would have been disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 18.

17. ELECTION AND RETIREMENT OF TRUSTEES

17.1 The Trustees shall consist of:

- (a) the Honorary Officers.
- (b) up to nine Trustees elected by the voting members at the AGM, and
- (c) the Charity shall use its best endeavours to ensure that not less than 50% of Trustees shall have lived experience of visual impairment.

17.2 Other appropriate persons as the Trustees may decide shall be invited to attend all General Meetings and meetings of the Trustees in the capacity of observers but without voting powers.

17.3 The Honorary Officers shall serve for a maximum of two consecutive three-year terms. They will not be eligible for re-election until one year has elapsed after the expiry of their second term of office. They shall be eligible for a further term of three years but not thereafter. In the event of there being no candidate for an Honorary Officer post, the terms of the holders of these posts may, exceptionally, be extended by a special resolution of the AGM.

17.4 Subject to Article 17.3 above at the first and every subsequent Annual General Meeting of the Charity one third (or the number nearest one third) of the Trustees shall retire by rotation from office those longest in office retiring first and the choice between any of equal service being made by drawing lots.

17.5 Subject to Article 17.3 above a retiring Trustee shall be eligible for re-election.

17.6 The Charity at the meeting at which a Trustee retires in manner aforesaid may fill the vacated office by electing a person thereto, and in default the retiring Trustee shall, if offering himself for re-election, be deemed to have been re-elected, unless at such meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill such vacated office or unless a resolution for the re-election of such Trustee shall have been put to the meeting and lost.

17.7 No person other than a Trustee retiring at the meeting shall unless recommended by the Trustees be eligible for election as a Trustee at any General Meeting unless, not less than fourteen nor more than twenty-one days before the date set for the meeting, there shall have been left at the registered office of the Charity notice in writing signed by a voting member qualified to attend and vote at the meeting for which such notice is given, of his intention to propose such person for election, and also notice in writing signed by that person of his willingness to be elected. The notice shall give the particulars of that person which would, if he were so appointed, be required to be included in the register of Trustees.

18. DISQUALIFICATION AND REMOVAL OF TRUSTEES

18.1 A Trustee shall cease to hold office if the Trustee:

- (a) ceases to be a Trustee by virtue of any provision in the Act or is disqualified from acting as a Trustee by virtue of Section 178 of the Charities Act 2011 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision).
- (b) becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing and administering his own property and affairs.
- (c) subject to 6.4 resigns his office by written notice to the Charity.
- (d) is absent without the agreement of the Trustees from all their meetings held within a period of six months and the Trustees resolve that his office be vacated; or

- (e) is removed from office by a three-quarters majority vote of the rest of the Trustees at a special meeting called for that purpose, when in the opinion of the Trustees it appears that the Trustee in question is acting in a manner detrimental or prejudicial to the wellbeing of the Charity.

19. PROCEEDINGS OF THE TRUSTEES

- 19.1 The Trustees may arrange, adjourn, and otherwise regulate their meetings, as they think fit. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
- 19.2 The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Trustees may be fixed by the Trustees and, unless otherwise fixed, shall be three (and shall never be fixed at less than three).
- 19.3 The Trustees may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but, if and as long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to the Articles of the Charity as the necessary quorum, the Trustees may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Trustees to that number, or of summoning a General Meeting of the Charity, but for no other purpose.
- 19.4 The Trustees shall elect the Chairman and if at any meeting the Chairman is not present within five minutes of the time appointed for holding the same, the Trustees present may choose one of their number to chair the meeting.
- 19.5 The Trustees shall nominate the Vice-Chairman and the Treasurer who must be approved by the voting members at the AGM.
- 19.6 The Trustees shall, at its last meeting of each calendar year, appoint Sub-Committees consisting of such Trustees as they think fit, to prepare recommendations on all financial and general business of the Charity which shall then be brought to the Trustees for its consideration.

- 19.7 The Trustees may delegate any of their powers to sub-committees consisting of such Trustees as they think fit; any sub-committee so formed shall conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Trustees and shall report all acts and proceedings to the Trustees fully and promptly.
- 19.8 A sub-committee may elect a chairman of its meetings; if no such chairman is elected, or if at any meeting the chairman is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the committee members present may choose one of their number to chair the meeting.
- 19.9 A sub-committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper. Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the committee members present, and in the case of an equality of votes the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
- 19.10 All acts done by any meeting of the Trustees or of a sub-committee, or by any person acting as a Trustees, shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such Trustee or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Trustee.
- 19.11 A resolution in writing, signed by all the Trustees entitled to receive notice of a Trustees meeting, shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a Trustees meeting duly convened and held, and may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one Trustee or more.
- 19.12 Whenever a Trustee (or any company or firm or other body of which that Trustee is a member, director, trustee or employee) has or may have any direct or indirect beneficial interest in a matter to be discussed at a meeting of the Trustees or a sub-committee, the Trustee concerned must:
- (1) declare an interest before discussion begins on the matter (or as soon the potential for conflict of interest becomes apparent);

- (2) withdraw from the meeting for that item unless expressly invited to remain in order to provide information;
- (3) not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting; and
- (4) withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

20. RULES OR BYE LAWS

20.1 The Trustees may from time to time make such Rules or Bye Laws as it may deem necessary or convenient for the proper conduct and management of the Charity and for the purpose of prescribing classes of and conditions of membership, and in particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, it may by such Rules or Bye Laws regulate:

- (i) the admission and classification of all members of the Charity, and the rights and privileges of such members, and the conditions of membership and the terms on which members may resign or have their membership terminated and the entrance fees, subscriptions and other fees or payments to be made by members;
- (ii) the conduct of any member of the Charity in relation to one another, and to the Charity's employees;
- (iii) the procedure at General Meetings and meetings of the Trustees and sub-committees in so far as such procedure is not regulated by these Articles;
- (iv) generally, all such matters as are commonly the subject matter of Association rules.

20.2 The Charity in General Meetings shall have power to alter, add to or repeal the Rules or Bye Laws and the Trustees shall adopt such means as they deem sufficient to bring to the notice of voting members of the Charity all such Rules or Bye Laws, which, so long as they shall be in force, shall be binding on all voting members of the Charity. PROVIDED, nevertheless, that no Rule or Bye Law shall be inconsistent with, or shall affect or repeal anything contained in, the Memorandum or Articles of Association of the Charity.

21. SECRETARY

21.1 The Trustees may appoint (and may remove) any person to act as Association Secretary provided that if a Trustee is appointed, he shall not be paid.

22. ACCOUNTS

22.1 Accounts shall be prepared in accordance with the provisions of Part VII of the Act.

23. ANNUAL REPORT

23.1 The Trustees shall comply with their obligations under the Charities Act 2011 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that Act) with regard to the preparation of an annual report and its transmission to the Commissioners.

24. ANNUAL RETURN

24.1 The Trustees shall comply with their obligations under the Charities Act 2011 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that Act) with regard to the preparation of an annual return and its transmission to the Charity Commissioners.

25. NOTICES

25.1 Any notice given to or by any person pursuant to the Articles may be sent by hand, by post, by suitable electronic means or posted on the Charity's website.

25.2 A voting member whose registered address is not within the United Kingdom and who gives the Charity an address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be given to him shall be entitled to have notices given to him at that address, but otherwise no such voting member shall be entitled to receive any notice from the Charity.

25.3 Notice of every general meeting shall be given in any manner hereinbefore authorised to:

- (a) every voting member except those voting members who (having no registered address within the United Kingdom) have not supplied to the Charity an address within the United Kingdom for giving of notices to them;
- (b) the auditor for the time being of the Charity; and
- (c) each Trustee.

No other person shall be entitled to receive notices of General Meetings.

25.4 A voting member present in person at any meeting of the Charity shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where necessary, of the purposes for which it was called.

25.5 Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. A notice shall be deemed to be given at the expiration of 48 hours after the envelope containing it was posted.

26. INDEMNITY

26.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act every Trustee or other officer or auditor of the Charity shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Charity against any liability incurred by him in that capacity in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or connection with any application in which relief is granted to him by the court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Charity.

27. DISSOLUTION

27.1 If upon the winding-up or dissolution of the Charity there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed amongst any members of the Charity, but shall be given or transferred to some other charitable institution or institutions having objects similar to the objects of the Charity, and which prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Charity under or by virtue of article 5 hereof, such institution or institutions to be determined by the Trustees of the Charity at or before the time of dissolution, and in so far as effect cannot be given to such provision, then to some other charitable object.
